LIBRARY FAQ'S YOU MIGHT WANT TO KNOW

Does the library provide notary services?

Yes, free of charge. Please call ahead of time to check availability.

I lost my library card, what do I do?

Replacement cards are $2. Or, get a digital card for free through the Stella app, which can be saved in your digital wallet.

Can I print something from my phone?

Yes! Once you download the SmartAlec app on your phone, upload your document, and retrieve it at our print station.

What are the late fees?

- DVDs: $1 a day, each day past due date.
- Books: No late fees. If the book(s) end up missing, full price of book(s) plus $5 replacement fee(s) will be charged to your account.
- Chromebooks & Hotspots: $5 a day, each day past due date.

How do I renew items?

In person, by phone, or through the Stella app.

What is Stella?

Our catalog system! Available on mobile and desktop. Log in with your library card and PIN to check and place holds, view checkouts, and browse the consortium's three million plus items across 43 libraries!

Can I print, scan, fax or make copies at the library?

Yes! B&W print and copies are $0.15 per page; color is $0.35 per page. Faxing is $1 per page and scans are free.
